What is the CASNR Student Council?

CASNR Student Council is the “student government” of the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, and comprised of two branches. The Executive branch is made up of 11 executives. The Representative of CASNR Student Council is made up of representatives selected by each of the clubs/organizations within the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources. The CASNR Student Council executives coordinate many of the club/organization activities throughout the year.

What do Public Relations Committee members do?

Members of the Public Relations Committee will be responsible for assisting the CASNR Student Council Reporter plan and organize CASNR’s participation in university functions such as homecoming, and CASNR Week, as well as other events throughout the year. Additionally, committee members will be expected to be proficient in both written and oral communication skills.

Who is eligible to serve on the Student Relations Committee in the CASNR Student Council?

Any student, in good standing, enrolled in the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources at Oklahoma State University is eligible to apply to serve on the Public Relations Committee.

Agricultural Communication majors are strongly encouraged to apply!

How many are selected and what is the process?

A total of four students are selected based on this application and an attached professional résumé. All applicants will be notified by phone or email as to whether or not they were selected for a position by Wednesday, September 23, 2015.

What would be required of me?

If chosen to serve on the 2015-2016 Public Relations Committee, you will be expected to attend at least two meetings a month. Additional meetings will be necessary during “busy” times, such as homecoming and CASNR week. Committee members will be expected to be flexible and willing to assist in times of need. If you are selected and fail to regularly attend meetings or required events, you will be replaced. We understand that there are exceptions to this rule.

PLEASE RETURN APPLICATION TO 103 AGH BY 4:00 PM ON MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2015.
