Please consider my application for the following living learning community

- Freshmen In Transition - this community is comprised of 100 freshmen CASNR students mentored by sophomore student leaders (FIT SAMs). Program fee $150

1. I learned about CASNR Village from (check all that apply):

- A campus visit to OSU
- A past participant of FIT name: _____
- The CASNR website
- Future Ag Leader's Conference

2. Listed below are possible reasons for applying to live in CASNR Village. Please rank your top five reasons with 1 being the reason that best fits you

- I want to get involved and thought this seemed like a good option to help me
- I like the aspect of a peer mentor living in the community
- I wanted to live in a suite-style residential hall
- I think it could help me do better academically
- I hope it will help me more easily meet people and make friends
- I like the aspects of professional development and leadership development
- I liked the idea of my roommates being in the same college as me (i.e. College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources)

Students selected for FIT will begin April 15 and continue until all spaces are assigned. Selection is not on a first-come-first-selected basis, but on the quality of the student's application and other criteria used to develop a diverse CASNR community.
