

CAMPUS VISIT

spend a day at osu

One day can make a difference in your perception of Oklahoma State University. A campus visit is one of the most important ways to investigate OSU and its programs. Campus visits are tailored to your specific interests and needs. See for yourself the educational and career opportunities at OSU and the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources.

Come see our campus. We think you'll agree that OSU and CASNR is your college destination.

what is a campus visit?

During a campus visit, you will have the opportunity to meet students and faculty, tour campus, see a residential hall, attend a class and get answers to your questions concerning OSU, our college and programs.

Parents are invited too! We encourage your parent(s) to come with you so they can see what we have to offer and can meet faculty and staff.

Each visit is unique because we plan your visit around your interests and schedule. However, the following activities are most common to a campus visit:

- Appointment with OSU representative to discuss admission, housing, tuition costs, financial aid, scholarships and student life.
- Campus Walking Tour - One-hour campus overview including a visit to a residence hall.
- Appointment with a faculty adviser/college representative in your particular area of interest.
- Attend a class, visit individually, or have lunch with a student agricultural ambassador.
