June, 2019

- Specially designed for Pre-Veterinary students or those with an interest in animal agriculture.
- Network and work with faculty and veterinary students from the only AVMA accredited university in Latin America.
- Get field animal experience on horses, mules, donkeys, cattle, sheep, and fish.
- Hands-on veterinary medicine and surgery experience side-by-side with a Mexican veterinary student.
- Learn about animal industry and human-animal interaction in Mexico.
- Learn more about animal welfare, wildlife preservation, citrus, banana cultivation, etc.
- Tour archaeological sites, learn about French migration to Mexico, go white water rafting and enjoy a beautiful beach!

Estimated Cost: *
- Course Program Fee $TBC (includes lodging, in-country transportation, and all meals)
- Airfare ~$500 (vary according to reservation date)
- Course Tuition $897
- Personal Expenses ~$200 (suggested)

*All costs are estimated and subject to change

Contact: Dr. Udaya DeSilva
206B Animal Science
405-744-8847
udaya.desilva@okstate.edu